

DOWNTOWN E-VENTS

May 3-9, 2019

Featured Events

Thru September 30

May 3 - First Friday

Various locations throughout downtown Dayton; 5-10 p.m.

The beginning of every month starts with a bang in downtown Dayton. First Friday is a free art hop featuring exhibit openings at the galleries, along with a variety of entertainment options, arts demonstrations, live music and more. Add to that everything going on at the restaurants, bars, nightclubs, theaters, comedy club, movie theater and more that make up the downtown mix, and you have plenty of reasons to get out and about on First Friday! First Friday is presented by the Downtown Dayton Partnership. For more info and specific event details, visit the First Friday webpage or Facebook page. 224-1518.

COMING UP: May 11 - DP&L Summer in the City Downtown Housing Tour

Multiple housing locations throughout downtown Dayton (see map); 1-5 p.m. Find out why downtown Dayton is still the region's hottest, most in-demand address during our free Downtown Housing Tour! Check out a variety of homes from renovated warehouse lofts to brand new apartments and townhomes at several tour stops. Experience the fun and convenience of downtown living, with restaurants, brewpubs, shops, performing arts, galleries and more just steps away. Hop on and off the free tour shuttles, or see the tour on foot or bike. Get more information at the event website, or download a map of the featured tour stops here. Presented by the Downtown Dayton Partnership as part of the DP&L Summer in the City, and sponsored by DP&L, Vectren, WHIO, and the Greater Dayton RTA. Free.

April 6-10 - The Square Is Where

Thru May 5 - Nice Girl

Dayton Theatre Guild,

430 Wayne Ave.; call for times.

In suburban Massachusetts in the mid-1980s, thirty-something-year-old Josephine Rosen has a dead-end job as a secretary and still lives at home with her hypochondriac mother. She started college but never finished, and has settled into a life that doesn't offer much hope for the future. But when a new friendship at work and a chance flirtation with an old classmate give her hope for the possibility of change, she dusts off the Jane Fonda tapes and begins to take tentative steps towards a new life. This is a play about the tragedy and joy of figuring out who you are and letting go of who you were supposed to be. Buy tickets here.

Thru May 12 - Sylvia

The Loft Theatre, 126 N. Main St.;

call for times.

Middle-aged Greg brings home a dog he found - or rather, one that found him - in the park. With no other identification other than "Sylvia" on her nametag, she's a street-smart mutt with a mind of her own and no shortage of opinions. Sylvia quickly becomes a major bone of contention between Greg and his wife, Kate. To him, she's a welcome escape from an unhappy job and a loss of purpose. To Kate, Sylvia's a slobbering, hairy rival for her husband's affection. This ingenious take on a twisted love triangle leads to plenty of laughs and revelations on love and marriage... and a dog. Tickets start at $14. Buy tickets here.

Thru May 13 - Sound the Alarm

This spring, join fellow Red Cross volunteers in more than 100 communities across the country to Sound the Alarm, a home fire safety and smoke alarm installation event. During this nationwide home fire safety and smoke alarm installation event, volunteers across the country will install 100,000 free smoke alarms in high risk neighborhoods in over 100 cities. In The Dayton Area, we have made over 3000 homes safer and together with volunteers across the country we have saved over 520 lives. We are counting on volunteers like you! Here is how you can help: Visit www.soundthealarm.org to register today and commit to joining 35,000 volunteers across the country to make homes safer by installing smoke alarms, replacing

Get your girls, decide which Spice Girl you are and join us for the flyest event of the year. Every dollar raised will benefit Planned Parenthood Southwest Ohio. The downtown Dayton center serves all genders in our local community through health screenings, sex education, birth control, STD testing/treatment/vaccines and much more. $20 ticket presale, $25 ticket at the door. 461-1101.

May 6 - Fallen Angels Playreading

The Loft Theatre, 126 N. Main St.; 7 p.m.

From one of England's wittiest writers comes a farcical 1920s romantic romp turned titillating treat. Best friends Julia and Jane are both in stable - but sometimes boring - marriages. Their lives are turned upside down when a past lover of both ladies plans a visit. Should they be good wives, or give over to remembered passion? Nerves, alcohol and jealousy make for a hysterical reunion reminiscent of the hijinks of "Lucy and Ethel." Buy tickets here.

alarm batteries and helping families create escape plans.

SCORE helps you succeed! Check out one of our latest success stories.

Husband-and-wife team Aarti Garehgrat and Purav Patel began selling Bagel Dots - bite-sized bagels filled with cream cheese - out of their home kitchen in the summer of 2014. Garehgrat and Patel's first clients were corporations in downtown Houston, who served Bagel Dots at breakfast meetings and events. Soon, their product became a local Houston favorite. Garehgrat and Patel now produce Bagel Dots in a USDA/FDA-approved facility, and more than 200 H-E-B grocery stores in Texas carry them in the frozen breakfast aisle.

How SCORE helped:

SCORE mentors Judy Myers and Raj Mashruwala supported Garehgrat and Patel as they transformed their business from a catered corporate breakfast snack to a supermarket retail item.

"We can honestly say Bagel Dots would not be where we are today without the support and guidance of SCORE and our mentors," says Garehgrat. "Every time we hit a bump along the road, our mentors were right there helping us talk through the problem and connecting us with people and services from SCORE's network that could help."

The services described are funded, in part, with federal funds awarded by the U.S. Department of Education (DOE) under the Vocational Rehabilitation (VR), Supported Employment Services, and the Independent Living Services for Older Individuals Who are Blind (OIB) programs. For purposes of the VR program, the federal VR grant paid 78.7% of the total costs of the program. In federal fiscal year (FFY) 2018, the VR agency received $100,336,097 in federal VR funds. Funds appropriated by the state paid 21.3% of the total costs $27,155,767 under the VR program.

It's said that "You don't know, what you don't know." Well, now you can ... at least with medical marijuana.

Ohio House Bill 523 legalized marijuana as medicine in the state.

*What does that mean for employers?
What options do businesses have?*

Businesses need to decide how they will respond to an employee's recommendation for and use of medical marijuana.

But what needs to be considered when making this decision? Get help thinking through all the details and potential ramifications in this 90-minute webinar:

Medical marijuana and your drug-free workplace program

Thursday, May 9, 9 - 10:30 a.m. (click to register)

- learn about business and operational issues from legalization under Ohio House Bill 523
- identify related drug-free workplace program issues for employers and employees
- understand where CBD falls in the mix of things to consider
- review key decisions that need to be made - particularly relating to policy, operations and employee/supervisor awareness

What people are saying about this webinar ...

"Best seminar on the topic I have been to."

"Very informative, really made you think and gave reasons for both yes and no."

HEATHER MCGOWAN
KEYNOTE SPEAKER

Heather McGowan is an internationally known speaker, writer and thought leader. McGowan prepares educators and business leaders to most-effectively react to rapid and disruptive changes in education, work, and society. As an innovation strategist, Heather has worked with diverse teams in academia and large corporations to address these challenges. In higher education, she advises presidents to develop expertise and learning agility to prepare graduates for jobs that do not yet exist. She was the architect of the Kanbar College of Design, Engineering, and Commerce at Philadelphia University, the first undergraduate college explicitly focused on innovation. At Becker College, she crafted the intellectual construct for the Agile Mindset learning framework. She assists corporate executives in rethinking their business models, teams, and organizational structures to become resilient in changing markets. Her corporate clients range from start-ups to publicly traded, Fortune 500 companies, including Autodesk and BD Medical. Recently, she originated the role of Minister of Culture for Hyperloop Transportation Technologies. McGowan is the co-author and co-editor of the book Disrupt Together: How Teams Consistently Innovate.

LYDIA MIHALIK
CLOSING SPEAKER

Lydia Mihalik is the Director of the Ohio Development Services Agency. The agency provides customer service and support to businesses, communities and individual investors and entrepreneurs to encourage economic development in the State. Director Mihalik was appointed to lead the Agency by Governor Mike DeWine. She comes to the agency after serving as the Mayor of the City of Findlay. She is the first woman to hold the City's top post. As Mayor, she was a strong proponent of small business and workforce development. She has been a board member for the Ohio Mayors Alliance, a collaboration of Ohio's 20 largest cities, and has served on the Advisory Board for the U.S. Conference of Mayors. Director Mihalik is a native of Indiana who moved to Ohio to attend the University of Findlay, where she earned a degree in political science. Her interest in public administration earned her an internship with the City of Findlay, which led to a full-time position in city economic development. She has served as Grant Administrator for the Hancock Regional Planning Commission. She serves on the Hancock County Red Cross Board of Directors as well as Board of Directors for The Partnership for Excellence.
